ALUMNI NEWS

April 1966

Dear Alumnus:

It seems only a short time ago since we were making preparations for Homecoming activities, and now another school year is drawing to a close and Graduation Services and the Annual Alumni Banquet will soon be here. The Baccalaureate Service is scheduled for May 27 and the Graduation Service and Alumni Banquet are slated for May 28. Reserve this weekend for an annual trek back to your Alma Mater; you'll be surprised at the changes and pleased to see construction work started for the library and new dormitory.

Certainly it is a joy to receive letters from our graduates, to learn of their progress, and to find them actively engaged in various means of service. Just to share with you a few, here are some excerpts from recent letters:

Ron and Jan McDugle, Winona Lake, Indiana--"Along with our contribution to the Alumni Fund we wanted to send a few words to tell you how much we have appreciated the news of the alumni found in the school newspaper. It makes us feel closer to 'old' friends and also closer to the school as we read what is happening in the lives of our former fellow students and at beloved Cedarville. Our years profited as much, and we want to help in furthering the ministry of Cedarville College."

Marv Hollenbeck, Marlette, Michigan--"I was so glad to receive the note on the Alumni News. For quite some time I have felt that Cedarville needs to do something along this line as far as alumni are concerned. Many of the other schools, Christian and otherwise, are very, very concerned about what their alumni are doing and what support the alumni can give. This is a very vital field, and I feel that it's very necessary, and you're doing a very vital job in your area."

Pvt. James L. Defibaugh is in Viet Nam near Saigon in the 90th Army, according to a letter from Mrs. Defibaugh.

You will be thrilled to learn that one alumnus and his wife gave $1,000 to the Alumni Association recently which Stuart Chaffe, treasurer, says has been applied to our account for the film project "Higher Than Higher Education" underwritten by our group.

We are pleased to know of this substantial gift because it indicates a loyalty to Cedarville College and our Alumni Association matched by giving. This is not to minimize the smaller gifts, for without them our alumni could not survive, but it does offer a challenge for all of us to get behind our association as the Lord has prospered us. Since our number now totals 625, collectively we could soon see the balance for our project wiped out by Alumni Banquet time.
